GOSPEL

Luke 8: 26 — 39

Jesus and his disciples arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, 'What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me' – for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, 'What is your name?' He said, 'Legion'; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss. Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned. When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, 'Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you.' So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

NOTICES

Fr Jeremy's Silver Jubilee Saturday 29th June 12 noon We would like to draw your attention to Fr Jeremy's personal invitation to us, the congregation.

I invite you to join me as I celebrate 25 years as a Priest in God's Church. After the service we will share hospitality in the Birinus Room and Garden.

This is a very important milestone both for Fr Jeremy and for ourselves as we continue to support both his wider Vocation and his service to us here at All Saints.

Fr Jeremy will very kindly be providing the drinks, a cooked ham will be provided and we invite you to supply salad – potato, mixed etc - or desserts.

Please sign the list at the back of the church to indicate you are coming and also sign the separate list if you are able to provide salad or a dessert

Ann Rawlings & Ken Smith Churchwardens

Disposable cups

From this week you will find that we have new environmentally friendly cups for your tea and coffee rather than the old plastic cups. The new cups are disposable, either through fast decomposition in the general rubbish or in compost by cutting up. (Although they are actually re-cyclable the Council tells me that we cannot do that if they are stained).

Please let us know how you find them as there will no doubt be teething problems but, whatever, we shall not be going back to single use plastic cups. If you have any other ideas for the church to become more environmentally aware please also let us know, bearing in mind the nature of our building may have its limitations. Ken Smith

Sides people:

Our Sides people perform a valuable service for All Saints, providing a wonderful welcome to congregation and visitors alike and undertaking several important tasks during services. We have a few spaces on the rota at the moment and would be very pleased to hear from anyone who would like to be part of this special team. We will ensure that you have all the help and information you need to fulfil this key role; we also hold "get togethers" from time to time when we meet to talk about the role of a Sides person and how we might build upon the service we provide. If you think you might like to join the team, please speak to Ann Rawlings or me. Stella Harding

Painting Raffle

Our resident artist, Reg Denison, has generously donated a painting of the Guards Club Bridge over the Thames at Maidenhead, to raise funds at our fete on Saturday 6th July. The picture is displayed at the back of church and tickets are available now at £2 each or three for £5. If you would like an opportunity to win it please buy tickets now and help raise funds for the fete.

The Almshouse Charity Vacancies Trustee post

We have a need for an additional Trustee. The Vicar and Churchwardens are the core Trustees but, the day to day needs are best served by people who are not Office holders at Church. There are normally 3 meetings per annum. Between meetings we would wish to establish a rotating duty Trustee to typically help out if access to the property is required by tradesmen and the Clerk is unavailable such as holidays etc.

Clerk

Our excellent Clerk, John Clark, has resigned after several years of outstanding service. The Clerk is the principal point of contact for the beneficiaries of the Trust. Liaison with tradespeople to gain access to the property to undertake maintenance work is a recurring demand. The Clerk alerts the Trustees to other maintenance work and typically arranges for estimates to be obtained. The Clerk is also point of contact for the call centre who operate the emergency alarm system in the house. Please speak to Fr Jeremy if you can help in either role.

Summer Fete Saturday 6 July

Please keep thinking about wine for our popular Wines of the World raffle. If you drop bottles off at the Parish Office during the week or give them to me on Sundays to safely store, that would be brilliant. The same principle applies to wine or even some spirits as top prizes for the Tombola, please label clearly if it is for Wines of the World or the Tombola to avoid confusion.

We need books, bric a brac, toiletries & soft cuddly toys as there is going to be another separate stall for teddies & their friends. Items can now be left at the back of church. Plus, if all the keen gardeners amongst us keep thinking of the plant stall & what would work on it, that would be great!

Please be on the look out for gazebos and stands for parasols! You all rallied to the cause last year & came up trumps on the day so we were all protected from the sun. It would be wonderful if we had a similar response this year! It really does make a huge difference!

An extra plea: can anyone lend a coolbox to help the cold drink stalls keep their wares deliciously cold? Please let me know if you can. Julia Wakeling

Notice Board

We now have a splendid new notice board at the north entrance, thanks to Derek Smith and Roger Towers. If you have not seen it yet do have a look. Ken Smith
