COLLECT

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth; send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

GOSPEL

Luke 7: 11 — 17

Jesus went to a town called Nain, and his disciples and a large crowd went with him. As he approached the gate of the town, a man who had died was being carried out. He was his mother's only son, and she was a widow; and with her was a large crowd from the town. When the Lord saw her, he had compassion for her and said to her, 'Do not weep.' Then he came forward and touched the bier, and the bearers stood still. And he said, 'Young man, I say to you, rise!' The dead man sat up and began to speak, and Jesus gave him to his mother. Fear seized all of them; and they glorified God, saying, 'A great prophet has risen among us!' and 'God has looked favourably on his people!' This word about him spread throughout Judea and all the surrounding country.

Offertory Hymn

1. Will you come and follow me

if I but call your name?

Will you go where you don't know,

and never be the same?

Will you let my love be shown,

will you let my name be known,

will you let my life be grown

in you, and you in me?

2. Will you leave yourself behind

if I but call your name?

Will you care for cruel and kind,

and never be the same?

Will you risk the hostile stare

should your life attract or scare,

will you let me answer prayer

in you, and you in me?

3. Will you let the blinded see
if I but call your name?
Will you set the pris'ners free,
and never be the same?
Will you kiss the leper clean
and do such as this unseen,
and admit to what I mean
in you, and you in me?

Will you use the faith you've found to reshape the world around through my sight and touch and sound
in you, and you in me?

4. Will you love the `you' you hide
if I but call your name?
Will you quell the fear inside,
and never be the same?

5. Lord, your summons echoes true
when you but call my name.
Let me turn and follow you,
and never be the same.
In your company I'll go where your love and footsteps show.
Thus I'll move and live and grow
in you, and you in me.
John L. Bell (b. 1949) and Graham Maule (b. 1958)

Communion Hymn

246 Just as I am

Closing Hymn

214 Guide me, O thou great Redeemer

Father Jeremy's Notes

Sunday 12th June Celebrations: You will have seen from the enclosed note that plans are well under way for a wonderful celebration of the Queen's Birthday and for the blessing of the beautiful Birinus Garden. We do hope that as many of you as possible will join in some or all of the celebrations! There is a sign up sheet at the back of the Church if you are planning to come to the lunch and / or the cream tea; this will help with the catering arrangements. Please can you also indicate what you will be bringing if you are able to contribute to the "Bring & Share Lunch".

At 2.00pm there will be a special Songs of Praise with hymns taken from the celebration BBC Songs of Praise and thoughts from the book specially written for the Queen in celebration of her life and faith, 'The Servant Queen and the King she serves'.

Advance Notice

The next young people's film club will be on Friday 24th June at the Vicarage.

OTHER NEWS

Larchfield Open Table Tuesday 7th June 5.00pm at Larchfield Community Centre

Tuesday Club 7th June 8.00pm in the Birinus Room

Postponed from last year, we're now delighted that Gwen Barton is joining us with her tales of Travels of a Dizzy Lady. Everyone welcome.
Brenda Illott

Mothers' Union Wednesday 8th June 2.30pm in the Parish Centre

This should be a lively and informative meeting when we welcome two Community Wardens from our Borough who are helping to make our town a safer place to live. They welcome questions and will try to deal with any queries if possible. Everyone is very welcome. We will also be manning our usual Sales Table – no raffles this time – so items for sale will be gladly received. Please also remember to continue collecting for our Toiletries Stall at the Fete on 2nd July – we are aiming higher than our total of over £80 last year!

Margaret Hill and Wendy Channon

FETE UPDATE Saturday 2nd July: There is still a sheet at the back of the Church for you to sign if you would like to help at the fete with one of the stalls or one of the various activities that are planned for the day. If anyone has any additional ideas for stalls or activities please do speak to Julia or Stella who are helping organise the fete this year. And please start collecting bric-a-brac, toiletries, books, CDs, DVDs, raffle and tombola prizes for the stalls; boxes will be put out at the back of the Church nearer the time to collect your kind donations. A date for your diary! Your fete needs you!!
Julia Wakeling and Stella Harding

Sidespeople Our sidespeople perform a valuable service for All Saints, providing a wonderful welcome to congregation and visitors alike and undertaking several important tasks during services. We have a few spaces on the rota at the moment and would be very pleased to hear from anyone who would like to be part of this special team. We will be holding one of our regular "get togethers" in a few weeks time when we will discuss the role of a sidesperson and ensure everyone on the team has all the information they need to fulfil this key role. If you think you might like to join the team, please speak to me or Rod.
Stella Harding

FOODSHARE

Each Friday a volunteer comes to collect from the Foodshare box at the back of the Church. Since Christmas the volume of donations has declined quite significantly and sometimes there's nothing in it at all. In the same period the demand for food has increased. Under political pressure 'Buy one get one free' promotions, which had been a source of contributions, have declined. Most of our supermarkets now have Foodshare collection boxes but if you shop locally or have home delivery then please remember our box. All tins, dry goods and toiletries appreciated.

FLOWER SPONSORSHIP

Just a note to let you know that 10th July has become available if anyone would like to sponsor it please. If you would like to do this just add your name to the list in the North Porch.
