Hymns: Ancient & Modern

Prelude

Prière à Notre-Dame

L Boëllmann

Hymn

518 O Christ the Healer, we have come

COLLECT

Almighty God, you have broken the tyranny of sin and sent the Spirit of your Son into our hearts whereby we call you Father: give us grace to dedicate our freedom to your service, that we and all creation may be brought to the glorious liberty of the children of God; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, now and for ever. Amen.

OT READING

Isaiah 60: 10—14

David Emerson

Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all you who love her; rejoice with her in joy, all you who mourn over her – that you may nurse and be satisfied from her consoling breast; that you may drink deeply with delight from her glorious bosom. For thus says the LORD: I will extend prosperity to her like a river, and the wealth of the nations like an overflowing stream; and you shall nurse and be carried on her arm, and dandled on her knees. As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you; you shall be comforted in Jerusalem. You shall see, and your heart shall rejoice; your bodies shall flourish like the grass; and it shall be known that the hand of the LORD is with his servants, and his indignation is against his enemies.

EPISTLE

Galatians 6: 7—16

Sue Ashwell

Do not be deceived; God is not mocked, for you reap whatever you sow. If you sow to your own flesh, you will reap corruption from the flesh; but if you sow to the Spirit, you will reap eternal life from the Spirit. So let us not grow weary in doing what is right, for we will reap at harvest time, if we do not give up. So then, whenever we have an opportunity, let us work for the good of all, and especially for those of the family of faith. See what large letters I make when I am writing in my own hand! It is those who want to make a good showing in the flesh that try to compel you to be circumcised – only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ. Even the circumcised do not themselves obey the law, but they want you to be circumcised so that they may boast about your flesh. May I never boast of anything except the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world. For neither circumcision nor uncircumcision is anything; but a new creation is everything! As for those who will follow this rule – peace be upon them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

GOSPEL Luke 10: 1—11 & 16—20

The Lord appointed seventy others and sent them on ahead of him in pairs to every town and place where he himself intended to go. He said to them, 'The harvest is plentiful, but the labourers are few; therefore ask the Lord of the harvest to send out labourers into his harvest. Go on your way. See, I am sending you out like lambs into the midst of wolves. Carry no purse, no bag, no sandals; and greet no one on the road. Whatever house you enter, first say, "Peace to this house!" And if anyone is there who shares in peace, your peace will rest on that person; but if not, it will return to you. Remain in the same house, eating and drinking whatever they provide, for the labourer deserves to be paid. Do not move about from house to house. Whenever you enter a town and its people welcome you, eat what is set before you; cure the sick who are there, and say to them, "The kingdom of God has come near to you." But whenever you enter a town and they do not welcome you, go out into its streets and say, "Even the dust of your town that clings to our feet, we wipe off in protest against you. Yet know this: the kingdom of God has come near." Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me, and whoever rejects me rejects the one who sent me.' The seventy returned with joy, saying, 'Lord, in your name even the demons submit to us!' He said to them, 'I watched Satan fall from heaven like a flash of lightning. See, I have given you authority to tread on snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will hurt you. Nevertheless, do not rejoice at this, that the spirits submit to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven.'

SERMON Fr John

Fr Jeremy's Notes

I would like to thank every one from the All Saints church community who made my Silver Jubilee service on Saturday such a wonderful day for me. It was great to see so many people there from the church family and from the wider community. Thank you to everyone who planned, contributed and helped serve the hospitality and all those who stayed following the service to enjoy sharing the day. Thanks too for the wonderful service contributions including those who planned and played the music, sang, those who read and led intercessions, and those who prepared the booklets for us. Thanks too for the serving team and for all the work that went on getting the church ready for the liturgy. Thanks for the bell ringers, flower arrangers and for the magnificent cakes. Many others made time to share clearing up the dishes, tables and did washing up. Thanks to for the wonderful food which was a genuine bring and share that worked wonderfully well. Thank you everyone for the gifts given to me from members of the church community and the wider community. I particularly enjoyed the timer for my sermons! There were many cards with lovely messages and again I really appreciate your prayers, thoughts and kind words. With my love and prayers. I could not think of a more fitting celebration to mark this special day in my life. With Love and prayers, Fr Jeremy

NOTICES

Senior Saints Wednesday 10th July 2.30pm in the Birinus Room

Please note the change of venue this month, as we welcome the Revd Joan Hicks to lead us on our annual Quiet Afternoon. For those who may have access problems, it is possible to enter the Birinus Room from the Garden, where there are no steps to overcome. This meeting, of course, is during the week following the Church Fete, and it will be good to reflect on past activities and future plans. All are welcome to join us for a relaxing and reviving afternoon, followed as always with welcome refreshments.

Margaret Hill & Wendy Channon

The Almshouse Charity Vacancies

Trustee post

We have a need for an additional Trustee. The Vicar and Churchwardens are the core Trustees but, the day to day needs are best served by people who are not Office holders at Church. There are normally 3 meetings per annum. Between meetings we would wish to establish a rotating duty Trustee to typically help out if access to the property is required by tradesmen and the Clerk is unavailable such as holidays etc.

Clerk

Our excellent Clerk, John Clark, has resigned after several years of outstanding service. The Clerk is the principal point of contact for the beneficiaries of the Trust. Liaison with tradespeople to gain access to the property to undertake maintenance work is a recurring demand. The Clerk alerts the Trustees to other maintenance work and typically arranges for estimates to be obtained. The Clerk is also point of contact for the call centre who operate the emergency alarm system in the house. Please speak to Fr Jeremy if you can help in either role.

Sides people

Our Sides people perform a valuable service for All Saints, providing a wonderful welcome to congregation and visitors alike and undertaking several important tasks during services. We have a few spaces on the rota at the moment and would be very pleased to hear from anyone who would like to be part of this special team. We will ensure that you have all the help and information you need to fulfil this key role; we also hold "get togethers" from time to time when we meet to talk about the role of a Sides person and how we might build upon the service we provide. If you think you might like to join the team, please speak to Ann Rawlings or me.

Stella Harding

INTENTIONS FOR THE WEEK

Please pray for

Senior Saints as they meet for their Quiet Afternoon on Wednesday and the Revd Joan Hicks who will lead it.

For our Sides people and for others to join this important ministry of welcome.

Maidenhead Street Angels: all who give up their Friday or Saturday evenings, and the Administrator, Officers and Trustees.
